Bail for John Drummond of the same place Farmer
£ 100.

July 28. 1780

It having been suggested to the Board that Simon Viele of the Manor of Rensselaerwyck is able to give some very material information respecting Peter Cohoon who was some time ago committed as a spy from the enemy Ordered therefore that he be sent for and examined —

Simon Viele appearing agreeable to order and being examined under oath saith as follows (see Examination on file).

Ordered that the said Simon Viele enter into a Recognizance to appear at the next Supreme Court of Judicature to be held at the City Hall in this City on the third Tuesday in October next (or wheresoever the said Court shall then be held) to testify to such matters as he may know concerning Peter Cohoon and not to depart the Court without leave —

Simon Viele of the West District of Manor of Rensselaerwyck Farmer £ 400

Sep. 4. 1780

Lieutenant Thomas Ismay appeared before the Board and informed us that Benjamin Van Elten and his son John Van Elten of the Manor of Rensselaerwyck refuse to do any Militia duty and say they will not take up arms against the King that William Hooftaling of the same place said he was a King's man and that he would have nothing to do with the Rebels and that Adrian Bradt is greatly disaffected and that the Persons who are able to prove the above charges are Simon Viele and Philip Radliff —

Resolved in consequence of the above information that citations be made out and sent to the said Simon Viele and Philip Radliff commanding their appearance
